

Riders' Personal Accident Insurance 2023/24

Jockeys taking part in Point to Points run under the auspices of the Point to Point Authority are automatically covered by personal accident insurance whilst at a Point to Point that you are attending for the purpose of competing in a race. A summary of the benefits and restrictions are detailed within this document.

This is a Group personal accident policy with set benefits. It is not possible to amend these benefits for individual cases. Please review the schedule of benefits and if you require additional cover, over and above the cover offered by the Point to Point Authority, you should make additional arrangements with your own insurance provider or you can contact our insurance broker, Howden for additional help and advice.

This document is a summary only, the full terms and conditions of the policy are contained in the group policy wording. A copy is available for inspection from the Point to Point Authority Limited if required.

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- For cover to apply you must
 1. Hold a valid Riders' Qualification Certificate issued by the British Horse Racing Authority and have been accepted by Point to Point Authority Limited to take part in Point to Point Steeplechase Races being run in accordance with rules for Point to Point racing laid down by The British Horseracing Authority or the Irish National Hunt Steeplechase Committee or Irish Horseracing Regulatory Board only for the 2022/23 season.
 2. Hold a valid Hunt Members Riders' Qualification Certificate issued by the British Horse Racing Authority and have been accepted by Point to Point Authority Limited to take part in a Hunt Members Point to Point Steeplechase Race event being run in accordance with rules for Point to Point racing laid down by The British Horseracing Authority or the Irish National Hunt Steeplechase Committee or Irish Horseracing Regulatory Board only for the 2022/23 season.
- The amount payable for accidental death if you are unmarried, under 18 years of age or have no dependents is limited to £10,000.
- Where an Insured Person is over the age of 70 years at the effective date of this Policy:
 - (a) The sum insured for Items 1-7 on the Schedule shall be reduced to 10% of the sum insured as shown on the Schedule but limited to a maximum of £15,000 per Insured Person.
 - (b) Items 8 of the Schedule shall not be covered
- We will not pay the permanent total disablement benefit unless the disablement has lasted more than twelve (12) months and is medically determined to our satisfaction that in all likelihood there will be no improvement for the remainder of your life.
- Payment for a permanent physical disability not specified in the policy will be determined through a medical assessment of you to establish the degree of disability as a proportion of the sum insured for permanent total disablement without taking into consideration your occupation.
- If you suffer a temporary total disability and are not in paid employment, cover only applies if the injury prevents you from undertaking your usual duties (including scholastic duties if appropriate) and the payment we make is limited to the reimbursement of your reasonable additional out of pocket expenses for food, drink, telephone calls and transportation costs.

- If we pay temporary total disablement or facial scarring such payment will be deducted from any lump sum.
